

A weathered white mailbox is mounted on a white wooden post. The mailbox has a red flag on the left side. The name "ROHKER" is printed in large, black, block letters on a white background. Below the name, the address "11879" is printed in black on a white background. The mailbox shows signs of wear, including rust and discoloration on the top surface. The mailbox is situated on a gravel surface next to a paved road. A black plastic bag is visible on the ground to the right of the mailbox.
